

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 1, 1877

LIFE IN WASHINGTON.

SKETCHES ABOUT THE CITY BY THE REPUBLICAN REPORTERS.

A colored girl, named Mary E. Brooks, fell into a spout at the corner of G and Tenth streets near the U.S. Post Office, and was taken to the hospital, Jones, and was carried home to the Tenth-street station, where she was allowed to remain until she recovered, when she walked home.

About 12 o'clock last night Officer Mitchell, of the Fourth precinct, found a colored female child, about four months old, on Rhode Island avenue between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets northwest, and took her to the hospital. The officer subsequently took it to St. Ann's Infirmary, where it was received by the sisters.

AN UNDERSTANDING REACHED.—The clerk of the court has issued marriage licenses to the following parties: Henry Turner and Ellen Wood; W. H. Ottman and Mary Ellen Wood; George Collins and Mary Clark; Albert S. Curtis and Mary A. Curtis; William C. Ladd and Anna Lydia; Robert Butler and Katie Harlan; Fred S. Hodges and Ellen B. Newson.

ROUBLE IN THE MARINE BAND.—Yesterday afternoon, just prior to the commencement of the regular Thursday afternoon concert of the Marine barracks, Petrie, the second leader of the band, and a man named Johnson, the current principal of the Marine Corps, had words with the band in the barracks, when Petrie drew his sword and stabbed Samuel in the face, inflicting a painful, though not dangerous wound. No arrests were made.

MILTON NOT DEAD.—It will give pleasure to the friends of Mr. Charles E. Hilton, who died at his residence yesterday morning, to learn that he is not dead. He is in a state of suspended animation, having been resuscitated by a physician considered reliable on Wednesday night, when it was too late to make further inquiry about him. Mr. Hilton's condition is improving, and he may not probably furnish the subject for an ordinaryuary many years.

STEALING LAGER BEER GLASSES.—Fannie Anne Baker and John Crooks were arraigned together in the Police Court yesterday for stealing two larger beer glasses from Boyce's park, Seventh street. Mr. Baker stated that recently he had lost fifty to seventy glasses, worth fifteen or twenty cents apiece, every night. Fannie and John were picked up by police officers, and were sent to the station-house, and two of the glasses were found in John's pocket and three concealed in Fannie's pockets. The Court fined them $1 each.

THE UNITARIAN CHURCH BUILDING.—The trustees and co-builders of the First Unitarian church held a meeting last night, at which Rev. Clay Metcalf, my president, and the other trustees, and the commissioners which had been made with the West Commissioners in reference to the lease of the old church building for a Police Court. A resolution was adopted empowering the trustees to complete a contract with the Commissioners to lease the old church to the new church, with the privilege to purchase, upon the terms already settled upon and published. The District Commissioners will take possession of the property as soon as the lease is consummated. Until the new Unitarian church is built on the corner of Fourteenth and K streets, the congregation will meet with the Unitarians.

SERGEANT HAN FORGETS.—Shortly after midnight last night the cry of police, emanating from the house on the southeast corner of Thirteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue, attracted the attention of Sergeant Arnold and Officer Atches. On entering the premises they found Andrew Crooks in room No. 200, who had taken a bottle of whisky, and was smoking tobacco in general. The officers arrested him and locked him up in the Thirteenth precinct station house for a hearing before Judge Snell this morning. Emma Baker and Crooks had been levers up to a few days ago when he had been drinking, but had stopped it and did not doze his vice any longer. This evicted Crooks, and last night he revengefully smacked his furniture, for which offense he will be called upon to answer this morning.

DEPARMENT CEREMONIES AT SOLDIERS' HOME.—The ceremonies on Decoration Day at the Soldiers' Home cemetery having been made the subject of much comment, it is now known that it was due to have it understood that the success of their efforts was largely due to the aid and assistance rendered by Gen. Pittard, Governor of the Home, and Comrade Tyler, superintendent of the cemetery. Both of these persons had been present in the service of the government for the construction and control of the committee and guests to honor the veterans of the Home, who were marshaled and promptly under the command of First Sergeant Drury. The men present did not forget that the exercises were so highly enjoyed by the veterans of the Home and the many guests present. It is estimated that the audience was more than five hundred in number.

CITY BREVITIES.

The Potomac Fruit Growers' Association and the Woodlawn Farmers' Association will have a meeting on the steamer Mary Washington on the 15th instant.

Robert Cole, Margaret Clark and Angelina Thornton were fined $100 or thirty days in jail by Judge Snell yesterday for disturbing a religious meeting at Emmanuel Baptist church, (colored), Capitol Hill. This was an outbreak of the troubles which have been in existence at Emanuel church for a long time.

The alarm of fire from 405 shortly before 6 o'clock last evening was caused by fire in the house owned by the Southwicks, owners of the hotel. May 10th, and occupied by James Lewis and Mrs. Costello. The cause of the fire is unknown. About $400 worth of damage was done.

Sallie Johnson charged a colored man named Moses Gaskins, in the Police Court yesterday, with an assault, stating that last Saturday night he "missed" her—her—that is, he attempted to get into her bed, she struck him and he struck back. All the police concerned live prominently.

Wayne Brooks was charged with receiving stolen property in the Police Court yesterday. Harriet Himes was given a $20 fine for services as wash-woman and did not return the change. Eight dollars and fifty cents of the money she gave to Brooks. The Court discharged the prisoner, holding that the charge was not serious. The original note was the property involved in the suit.
